

City of San Jose, CA

Fire Chief

Known as the “Capital of Silicon Valley,” the City of San José plays a vital economic and cultural role anchoring the world’s leading region of innovation. San José is Northern California’s largest city and the 10th largest city in the nation.

The San José Fire Department (SJFD) is committed to serving the community by protecting life, property, and the environment through prevention and response. SJFD serves the city-proper and other Santa Clara County areas with a total population that exceeds one million. The Department is organized across four Bureaus: Administrative Services, Field Operations, Fire Prevention & Permits and Fire Dispatch. The SJFD is staffed with 706 sworn positions and 118.5 civilian positions for a total of 824.5 employees. The Fire Department’s 2017-2018 operating budget is $241 million. The next Fire Chief will continue to lead and support the SJFD through its Core Services and Strategic Support functions. The core services are Emergency Response, Fire Prevention, Fire Safety Code Compliance and Strategic Support.

Requires any combination of training and experience equivalent to a master’s degree in public administration, business administration, or a discipline related to the business performed by the department, plus five (5) years of experience in a fire department administrative capacity equivalent to a Fire Battalion Chief in the San José Fire Department.

Salary: $153,137 to $239,350
